

CAMP DREAMCATCHER THERAPEUTIC SUPPORT VOLUNTEERS

Camp Dreamcatcher is looking for professionals in the fields of psychotherapy, psychology, social work, etc. to provide therapeutic support during our therapeutic and educational camp session for HIV/AIDS impacted youth.

The camp session is August 19th – 25th, 2018 and is held at Camp Saginaw. During the week of camp, we will offer a variety of therapeutic, educational and recreational sessions to 130 campers, ages 5-24. Therapeutic professionals can assist in facilitating group sessions or can provide individual support to campers and/or counselors.

If you are interested in volunteering, please provide the following information:

- Are you interested in working with a group or individuals?
- Do you specialize in a specific type of therapy or modality? (gestalt, cognitive, visualization, play therapy, mindfulness meditation, stress reduction, etc.)
- Is there an age group you would like to work with?
- What experience do you have, if any, in working with children, teens or young adults?
